

Thunder Seed Warehouse & Quality Control Lead

Job Purpose: Organizing and managing the appropriate product inventory and shipping practices.

Job Duties:

- Accomplishes overall sales objectives by proper inventory management.
- Sustains rapport with key accounts by making periodic visits; exploring specific product needs; anticipating new opportunities in genetics and traits.
- Protects organization's value by keeping information confidential.
- Manage seed sales and inventory plans
- Liaison between Thunder Seed, production contract company and producers regarding production, harvest, bagging and shipping
- Prepare and present supply updates on production fields (Physical Inspections and reports monthly through growing season)
- Maintain quality control of products (germ testing, bag appearance, quality pallets, proper tagging)
- Manage all company inventory where applicable
- Product Shipping Reports emailed weekly to all staff regarding products shipped to dealers
- Control and update product inventory of warehouse through Thunder Seed inventory management system (Pick Tickets, Delivery Tickets)
- Maintain accurate physical inventories monthly.

Skills/Qualifications/Personal Requirements: Organizational skills and strong communication skills a must. Must be able to lift 60 pounds, operate a forklift, CDL required, ability to plan and strategize shipping and logistics. Understanding of seed certification process, germ testing reporting and quality control experience.

To apply: Send resume to Crystal Adams at crystal.adams@thunderseed.com by March 25, 2019.